

Clinical Faculty – Position 1731, School of Nursing/College of Health Professions.

Full-time, 9 month, clinical track position. Salary: Commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Applicants must have a Masters degree in nursing from accredited program; a minimum of three (3) years of nursing experience; teaching experience preferred. Candidates must be eligible for RN licensure in WV. The department also seeks candidates who will contribute to the University's general education curriculum with its emphasis on a common First-Year Seminar and core curriculum courses that enhance students' critical thinking, and the College's support of interdisciplinary programs of study.

Full teaching load inclusive of classroom and clinical instruction; academic advising of students; participation in ongoing curriculum development and evaluation within the School of Nursing; participation on relevant departmental, college and university committees; active engagement in scholarly activities.

Submit letter of application indicating teaching experience, philosophy, and research interests; vita; official transcripts and names and contact information for three references to: Chair, Nursing Faculty Search Committee, School of Nursing, Marshall University, One John Marshall Drive, Huntington, WV, 25775. Inquiries and Electronic submission of application materials may be sent to clinej@marshall.edu Candidates interviewing on campus must have official transcripts (undergraduate and graduate) forwarded directly to the chair of the search committee by their degree granting institutions.

Position is open until filled.

Background Check Required