

Assistant/Associate Professor- Position 416 (Psychiatric/Mental Health Nursing, School of Nursing/College of Health Professions.

Full-time, 9 month, tenure track position. Rank and Salary: Commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Applicants must have a Doctoral degree in nursing or related field from accredited program; a minimum of three(3) years of nursing experience in the area of psychiatric/mental health nursing; teaching experience in field preferred. Preference will be given to applicants with demonstrated ability to obtain external grants and/or engage in other scholarly activities including research and/or professional publications. Candidates must be eligible for RN licensure in WV. The department also seeks candidates who will contribute to the University's general education curriculum with its emphasis on a common First-Year Seminar and core curriculum courses that enhance students' critical thinking, and the College's support of interdisciplinary programs of study.

Teaching responsibilities include classroom and clinical instruction in the area of psychiatric/mental health nursing; academic advising of students; participation in ongoing curriculum development and evaluation within the School of Nursing; participation on relevant departmental, college and university committees; active engagement in scholarly activities.

Submit letter of application indicating teaching experience, philosophy, and research interests; vita; official transcripts and names and contact information for three references to: Chair, Nursing Faculty Search Committee, School of Nursing, Marshall University, One John Marshall Drive, Huntington, WV, 25775. Inquiries and Electronic submission of application materials may be sent to clinej@marshall.edu. Candidates interviewing on campus must have official transcripts (undergraduate and graduate) forwarded directly to the chair of the search committee by their degree granting institutions.

Position is open until filled.

Background Check Required